PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

What a blessing to have another long holiday weekend of gorgeous weather (remember Memorial Day weekend?). It was also a busy weekend of activities, highlighted by the great live music of Hard Wood. What a wonderful turnout. Thank you to all the volunteers, including the teens who sold refreshments. I also want to thank everyone for keeping things safe throughout the weekend.

- Jeff

SOCIAL

I would like to start with a BIG THANK YOU to all who made Sunday a big BANG.

Sat July 10th BYOB, snack and blanket for a movie on the beach. at 8:30, we will be showing Dirty Dancing. Come down and see if you can dance like Patrick Swayze or Jennifer Gray.

New for this year: 2nd beach Pot Luck dinner on Sat. July 31st at 6pm. I am starting a list so please call me with what you are bringing so we all don't bring potato salad. 203-314-1096 if you have any ideas call me.

TAXES

Good morning.

POALH tax bills will be mailed mid July. They are due within 30 days of receiving them. Thank you to all who pay their taxes in a timely manner.

I have been remiss in not applauding the property owners for your prompt payments. Over 95% of you pay your POALH dues every year. I believe that any other tax district would be envious of that! Obviously, almost everyone understands what it takes to keep the services, the recreation and social programs, roads and beaches upkeep etc., basically keeping Lake Hayward a beautiful place to be. Even in a poor economy, records show what outstanding citizens we have here at the lake.

Best Regards,

Don

RECREATION

Thanks so much to our wonderful volunteers who have recreation off and running in the Summer of 2010. Thanks also to all of you for your patience with me as I acquaint myself with the roles of the Recreation Committee. A brief report on some of our areas:

Swimming. We still have some late entries but Chris and Nick are adapting well. Individual requests for special consideration in scheduling are being handled in a cooperative fashion with very few complaints.

Tennis. More sign-ups every day as children and parents observe Jennifer's teaching style. I have asked her to post a notice/sign-up sheet for adults interested in informal play. We have volunteers to arrange the play but precious little contact information for others interested.

PLEASE NOTE: During the Tuesday-Thursday AM lessons the courts are reserved for the instructor and lessons. Our large teenage group was limited to one court on one day! This is a no brainer. Thank you for your understanding.

Kiddie Bingo and Kiddie Arts and Crafts. Both well organized by experienced volunteers. The first night of Bingo had about 30 players and, by some miracle, all were winners and prizes were quickly devoured!

The Craft Crew has a season full of great ideas. There are some "supply needs" which we will try to get up online for possible donations. This Wednesday, July 14th, the kids will be making party favors.

Walk/Run (All for Fun). No takers last week and I apologize for the late notice. We will try again this Saturday at 8AM with a very informal agenda: meet, greet, and walk or run. Give it a try, who knows, you may make a friend.

Volleyball (Pick-up). On mostly word of mouth, 20 showed up in the heat last Sunday at 2 PM. The volunteers decided 4PM would be a better time so plan on volleyball Sundays at 4 at 2nd beach; just show up. Informal, pick-up. By the way, POALH has purchased two new volleyballs if you have a group and want to play.

Golf Tournament July 18 at 8 AM (Banner Lodge). We have a few openings and you are urged to call Don or I ASAP. Some groups need 1 or 2 players to fill out foursomes. This is a great scramble bargain, with lunch and cart, for only $45.

Chili Contest. The finals are Saturday, August 14, the same night as the Western Band. The preliminaries will include mini-contests at each beach with the top 2-3 making the finals. Details on the beach contests will be printed next week. Thanks for all the volunteers and get those fire extinguishers ready!!

A lot is happening and I feel the need to talk personally to those who have questions, want to volunteer, or have suggestions. I will be at the Pavilion this Saturday from noon-1PM and Sunday 9:30-10:30 if you would like to talk. Thank you.
