PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

A number of you sent messages to our new email address expressing your opinion about constructing new pavilions or gazebos at the ballfield and 2nd and 3rd beaches. Thank you. There is still time to send comments. The board will report to the Association at the Annual Meeting. Remember, our email address is: lakehaywardct@gmail.com.

We are looking for volunteers to help plan and supervise Lake Hayward Days activities. Please contact me or Fred Odell to offer a helping hand.

I hope you enjoy a terrific week at the lake.

- Jeff

Saturday July 31st: 2nd beach Pot Luck Dinner at 6pm. Come down and see some old friends or make some new ones.

Bring a dish, salad or dessert to share. Bring for your self a beverage, plate, utensils and a beach chair or blanket to sit on. I will supply some tables.

Returning to Lake Hayward next week: Horse Racing at the pavilion.

GARDEN CLUB

We are so..so... happy, Alice Miles will be home August 17th. Alice has been treasurer, president, secretary and volunteer of POALH for decades. Please welcome her home. We hope that she will be able to come to the CAKE WALK during Lake Hayward week.

Reminder: There will be a plant swap in the fall – Saturday, September 11th at 10am. Please collect your pods, zinnias, marigolds, coneflowers and sunflower heads in brown bags and label with flower and color. You can drop them off to Fred O'Dell or Sandra Zawistowski. Ed Clark will separate them.

RECREATION

FULL SPEED AHEAD AS WE HIT THE HAZY, LAZY DAYS OF SUMMER!

Hope you all enjoyed the spectacular weather and beautiful full moon this past weekend. The Lake is a wonderful place to watch the rising full moon! The "rec" calendar is also filling up very quickly with a number of new and old events to report on. Here we go:

Volleyball: Rumor has it that Kerry Stephenson has quite a crowd on Sundays at 4 PM. The court was recently "resurfaced" with new sand by our ever reliable John Jacoby and players are having fun. I did purchase two new volleyballs which are stored at First Beach for those who want a "pick-up" game at any time.

Swim and Tennis Lessons: Believe it or not people are still signing up! I believe Jenn, Nick, and Chris may be the "Pied Pipers" of the lake so beware!

Chili Contest:

- ◆ First Beach held its preliminaries on July 23rd and 3 winners came away for the finals. After a great round of tasting and judging by all "customers", Linda Lord, Diane Nelson, and "Chef" (no kidding, a real pro!) . An enthusiastic group stayed till the end and devoured all the chili! Thank you participants and good luck going to the finals.
- ◆ Second Beach, under the watchful eyes of Cindy Biancamano, is holding their preliminary this Saturday night at the Second Beach Pot Luck Supper. Plenty of judges and lots of contestants!
- ◆ Third Beach coordinator Gail (gailwarning27@aol.com) is going "all in" with her famous Mexican dip and chips, Sangria, and cornbread "Happy Hour" on August 7th at 5pm; where will everyone park?

Start planning for the finals on August 14th at 5pm at First Beach. Music by the talented Western/Bluegrass band "Turkey Foot" at 7pm. Bring your appetite and dancing shoes!

FISHING CONTESTS FOR KIDS and ADULTS -- AUGUST 7 !!!

Chairman Adam Thompson has checked the moon, stars, water temperature, and fish habits and has determined Saturday, August 7th will be the best day for the fishing contests. These events are rain or shine (except lightning). We do need volunteer judges for both events so if you can give us a couple of hours it would be appreciated.

- ◆ KIDS FISHING CONTEST: Saturday morning from 7:30 to 9:30 at Second Beach. All fishing will be done from shore or dock. Prizes for boys and girls for under 8's, under 10's and under 15's. Special prizes for largest, most, and etc. ALL FISH CATCH AND RELEASE.
- ◆ ADULT FISHING CONTEST: Saturday, August 7th from 7-9pm with registration of boats at Second Beach at 6:30pm. Two persons per boat, $10 entry fee per boat. All boats and contestants must be registered and licensed. All fish must be alive to be weighed and gill chains are recommended if you do not have a fish well; all fish will be released after weigh in. Top 3 fish (large mouth, small mouth and rock bass only) per boat determines winners. POALH members and family members only. All rules to be explained at registration. Entry fee will be used for prizes and barbecue which will follow weigh-in. (This sounds very professional to me but Adam guarantees a great time!)

HORSESHOES: We have 6-7 teams and all are anxious to go. We will keep the schedule open until August 1st but matches are kicking off as soon as this weekend. Remember, there are no set times and dates; set up matches with the other teams at your convenience! How easy!

RECREATION -CONTINUED-

FIRST CALL: LAKE HAYWARD DAYS VOLUNTEERS!

Lake Hayward Days has been passed on to me and I am really swamped! We have traditionally had events every day of the week starting Monday, August 16th and going to Saturday August 21st with Beach Games and a Carnival. We have volunteers for a Cake-Walk one night but that leaves four other days to fill in. Anyone for a Spaghetti Supper? Adult Bingo? Sand soccer? Poker? Ideas and volunteers very welcomed! Thank you.
