While traveling on business recently, I passed through and visited the national parks in Lexington and Concord, Mass. It's amazing how people volunteered for what they believed in and, through a coordinated effort, an untrained, ragtag bunch of dedicated citizens defeated a superior force. I believe the key words here are dedicated citizens and coordinated effort.

Our proud history of volunteerism is certainly reflected within the Lake Hayward community. Frankly, we could not deliver the social programs nor maintain the standard of living members have become accustomed to without a dedicated citizenry who, year after year, volunteer their time and energy in support of our Association.

As stated before, there are far too many of you to recognize by name, but a quick tally suggests there are more than 25 people active in all aspects of the community. Just look at the contact list, follow Don Smith's social messages, Gary Petersen's property reports and Janet Soboleski's article on newsletter deliveries - fantastic work by all.

Coordinated effort by the committee chairs enables the Association to manage our affairs effectively while being fiscally responsible. Many of us are from the days when we "just did it." If we were out shopping and saw something that would be good for, say, Ladies Night, we bought it. If we saw trees growing along the water, we cut them down. That is how it worked for years.

Our challenge today is how to manage the spirit of volunteerism without discouraging that very same spirit. Yes, we want you. In fact, we need you. But we can no longer go solo and "just do it." As we learn more how to manage the waterfront, we've learned that we cannot just cut down the growth along the water without impacting our lake and our goose-control efforts. As we tighten our budgets and keep the mill rate low, we must work within that committee budget.

Thus, we must coordinate our enthusiasm to "just do it" with "how can I help?" All we ask is that before you act in good faith, just contact the committee chair and ask - "I think this needs to be done, shall I ... or I found this, should I buy it?" Coordinated effort by our original volunteers won our liberty. Coordinated efforts by all of us will move the Association into the future while maintaining our goals to protect the environment and have loads of fun while being fiscally responsible.

Please volunteer, we need you. Please give the courtesy to the committee chairs as you volunteer to help the committee achieve their goals.

Enjoy the lake. Teach your children well.

PS - Yes, you can pick up the goose poop using the pooper scoopers and buckets at each beach. Properties will empty the bucket later. Thank you for asking and scoop that poop!

Kerry Boys

Last year marked The Kerry Boys 25th year as Connecticut's favorite Irish Balladeers. With their signature vocal harmonies and high energy instrumentation, The Kerry Boys are just plain Celtic fun!

The Kerry Boys are Mark James, originally from the county Kerry Ireland now a Cheshire, CT resident, and Peirce Campbell, (CT's official State Troubadour 2007/08) from Prospect, CT.

These four dynamic and popular Connecticut Irish Balladeers combined their talents to form an exciting Irish music group over 25 years ago, and they have dazzled fans of all ages from Maine to Pennsylvania with their humorous high-energy performances and engaging style of Irish ballads and sea songs.

Volunteer sought for lake newsletter distribution

We are looking for a volunteer to take over the distribution of the weekly newsletter. Please consider taking this position. It's a great way to volunteer for the Association as well as meet some great kids (and their families!)

It only involves about two hours a week. The newsletters get picked up at Copies-Plus in Colchester on Fridays. Packets are then made for the routes. The carriers then pick them up on Saturday mornings between 8:30-9 a.m. in order to start deliveries by 9 a.m. Carriers let me know when they can't cover their route on a particular week and then I arrange a substitute.

This is my sixth year working with the kids. They are a great group of dependable and responsible young people who get up every Saturday to deliver your newsletter. I have never had a problem covering the

Grill safety can help maximize your summer fun with family and friends

Although many people grill all year long, July is the peak month for grilling – and grill fires, according to the National Fire Protection Association. Whether you use propane or charcoal, follow these common sense tips and you will be on the way to safe grilling.

Propane Grills

- Check the gas tank hose for leaks before you use it for the first time each year and every time you change the propane tank. Apply a light soap and water solution to the hose with a paint brush before you use the grill. A propane leak will release bubbles. If your grill has a gas leak, by smell or the soapy bubble test, turn off the tank and check the connections. If reconnecting does not solve the problem, get the grill serviced by a professional.
- Check the tubes that lead into the burner for any blockage from insects, spiders or food grease. Use a pipe cleaner or wire to clear blockage and push it through to the main part of the burner.
- Never use a grill indoors. Use the grill at least 10 feet away from your cottage or any building. Do not use the grill in a garage, breezeway, carport, porch or under eaves or overhanging branches.
- Never turn on the grill when the lid is closed. The gas can build up inside and when ignited cause the lid to blow off, causing injuries or burns.

- Keep your grill clean by removing grease or fat buildup from the grills and trays below the grill.
- Keep children and pets at least 3 feet away from the grill area.
- Never leave your grill unattended.
- If you smell gas while cooking or your grill catches on fire, immediately get away from the grill and call the fire department. Do not attempt to move the grill or turn off the grill yourself.
- Always store your liquid petroleum (LP) or propane tanks upright. Do not store your spare gas container under or near the grill or indoors. Never store or use flammable liquids, like gasoline, near the grill.
- To avoid accidents while transporting LP gas containers, transport the container in a secure, upright position. Never keep a filled container in a hot car or car trunk. Heat will cause the gas pressure to increase, which may open the relief valve and allow gas to escape.

Charcoal Grills

Charcoal produces carbon monoxide (CO) when it is burned. Carbon monoxide is a colorless, odorless gas that can accumulate to toxic levels in closed environments. According to the Consumer Product Safety Council, each year about 30 people die and another 100 are injured as a result of CO fumes from charcoal grills and hibachis used inside.

- Never burn charcoal inside of homes, vehicles, tents or campers. Charcoal should never be used indoors, even if ventilation is provided.
- Do not store the grill indoors with freshly used coals, since charcoal produces CO fumes until the charcoal is completely extinguished.
- Dispose of completely cooled coals in a metal container.
- Check for rust damage in metal grills, which may make it possible for charcoal to fall through to surfaces below, starting a fire.
- Consider using a charcoal chimney starter, which allows you to use newspaper as the fuel to start your charcoal.
- If you use a starter fluid, use only charcoal starter fluid. Never use gasoline or any other flammable liquid to start your charcoal.

Keep charcoal starter fluid out of the reach of children and away from heat sources.

Colchester Land Trust hike will highlight land purchase in lake watershed

There is a 115-acre parcel for sale, most of which is in our watershed. The Colchester Land Trust has stepped up to purchase the land to keep it from being developed into a housing subdivision with all the clear cutting that goes along with that.

The parcel was scheduled to be developed in two phases, one with 12 lots and one with 30 lots, and it is the 30-lot portion that is in the Lake Hayward watershed. The 30-lot section is land and marsh that winds its way directly into Lake Hayward from a distance less than a mile from the north end of the lake.

Land trust president Andy George will make a presentation to Lake Hayward residents at the July 30 Town Hall to fully outline the project and offer suggestions on how Lake Hayward residents can provide support.

On Sunday morning, July 31, the Colchester Land Trust will offer an 1-1/2 hour walk on the property to residents of the Lake Hayward community. While there are some existing trails, a portion of the walk will be just "in the woods." The total property has some elevation gains, but the walk will focus on the area that drains into Lake Hayward, which is less hilly. Those walking should dress appropriately, bring water and bug spray. Dogs are permitted, but not encouraged. Plans are to meet at the First Beach parking lot at 9:45 a.m. on July 31 and then carpool to the location on Bulkeley Hill Road (five-minute ride).

We are indebted to the Colchester Land Trust for their efforts to bring this project to fruition. Remember that Lake Hayward is like the bottom of a bowl, everything that happens within our 1,500 acre watershed ends up impacting the lake. It is important that we partner with such efforts to maintain our watershed in its natural state.

Please note the 10 a.m. start for the July 30 Town Hall and the 9:45 a.m. July 31 walk on the property.

Contact Randy Miller (gretehct@yahoo.com) with questions.

When: 9:45 a.m., July 31.

Where: Meet at First Beach Pavilion.

Third Beach Report: New ramp and other improvement ongoing through the summer

The summer season is in full swing at Lake Hayward and so are the much-needed improvements to Third Beach.

The retaining wall replacing the broken stone steps was constructed and bids have been received to install a guard rail on top with a sloped handrail attached. This railing should complement the look of the wall and set a standard to which other needed guardrails at Third Beach will adhere.

Work on the sloped ramp at the south end of the beach should start soon. These two improvements to the beach area will provide a safe access to the beach from both ends.

Remember that Third Beach does not have a parking lot right next to the beach and residents must negotiate traffic to access the beach. This presents a special danger to all that use the beach. At the other two main beaches of the association there is either a stop sign to limit traffic speed or the parking is on the same side as the beach.

A small shed was installed to house items used by all the beach users. One item of interest stored in the shed is a First Aid kit donated by a generous association member. Users of the beach have been informed that it is there and keys have been distributed to a few responsible residents. Storage of other POALH items needed at the beach are also in the shed such as beach rake, buckets, and a small shovel.

The number of kayaks and canoes has seemed to double in the last few years and so a couple of new racks are being fabricated to handle the increase. These will be installed parallel and next to the new wall.

Many thanks to all who have worked hard to make these improvements a reality. As with your own home, the association must stay on top of deteriorating conditions or the whole house falls down.

With these improvements we will keep the beauty and value of the area high for many years to come.

Monday garbage pickup continues until Sept. 6

All-Waste Control will collect trash and recyclables twice a week (Monday and Friday) during the summer and the twice-weekly pickup started on June 13.

The last Monday pickup will be Sept. 6, after which pickup will be on Fridays only. The Town of East Haddam has implemented "single stream recycling" so it is no longer necessary to separate the various recyclables into separate containers and/or put them out on separate days. All recyclables can be combined and placed into a single container and put out with your regular trash. We must recycle: 1. Glass and metal food and beverage containers (rinsed); lids go in trash (No broken glass, mugs, windowpanes, ceramics, light bulbs, mirrors, dishes or tempered glass) 2. Plastic containers #1 through #7 (rinsed); lids go in trash 3. Newspaper, magazines, cereal/pasta boxes, milk and juice cartons, junk mail (No phone books, wax- or plastic-coated cardboard, soiled newspaper or magazines, books, plastic (Tyvek) envelopes) 4. Cardboard (broken down) (No wax coated boxes, soiled boxes, pizza boxes) 5.

Garbage bags should not be left uncovered for more than one day to prevent animals getting into them.

Many prizes were raffled off for kids and adults along with gifts for the kids from Santa. DJ Brandy kept the activities flowing, queuing up all our Christmas favorites. Good times!

Volunteer for Lake Hayward Days

Please contact Don Smith (860-338-1659) or email at events@lakehaywardct.com if you want to volunteer to help out. Diane Nelson will chair beach games, Heather Taylor will chair carnival and Dave Edgington will head up the cooking crew.

Social-Events budget

Being the Social Events chairman includes controlling the Social-Events budget approved by the membership. The only way to do that is to have all event chairmen understand what their allotment is and seek pre-approval for all expenditures. Unauthorized expenditures will NOT be reimbursed. Members of each event committee must seek approval from the event chairman prior to making any purchases. I must be firm on this protocol as I am ultimately responsible for the Social-Events budget.

Dispose properly of unneeded drugs and prescriptions to keep water clean

By Tim Pelton

Lake Quality Improvement Committee member

“Water, water everywhere, Nor any drop to drink”

While this is a famous quote comes from Samuel Coleridge’s “The Rime of the Ancient Mariner,” it does not apply to the water we drink, cook and wash with when living at Lake Hayward. All of the water we use comes from either a homeowner’s private well or from the five wells located at the south end of the lake that are operated by the water company. Each of us has a responsibility for the stewardship for our fabulous lake and our water supply.

The good news is that there is a medication for almost anything that ails us. The bad news is that those same medications need to be consumed as prescribed or disposed of properly. Washing old, expired or no longer needed pharmaceuticals down the sink or flushed down the toilet is not an acceptable practice. Those medicines will eventually wind up in the lake.

The water company has federal standards to meet for the treatment of bacteria, viruses, metals (including lead) and some additional elements. They are not required to test for the presence of pharmacological agents. For private well owners, the Connecticut

Department of Public Health recommends testing your water every five years or when you have major work done on your well.

How to properly dispose of unneeded medications

The solution is incredibly simple and requires a small commitment on your part.

There is a large red drop box in the lobby of the Connecticut State Police Troop K barracks that is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year. All you need to do is stop by and drop in your unwanted medications.

The Troop K barracks are located at 15 Old Hartford Road in Colchester across the street from the firehouse.

Along with your taking responsibility to properly dispose of your medications, there are also some common-sense rules that apply including that medications should be left in their original container.

Items that are accepted include:

- Over the counter medications

- Prescription medications
 - Sample medications
 - Pet Medications
 - Medicated lotions or ointments
- Items that may not be accepted include:

- Needles, sharps or syringes
- Mercury thermometers
- Chemotherapy medications or waste
- Hazardous waste

Note: There are a host of general consumer products labeled ‘medicated’ that do not merit specialized disposal at Troop K. Examples include medicated shampoo, medicated soap, etc.

Bottom Line: If you have unneeded or unnecessary medications laying around, dispose of them properly.

Using a little common sense and a conscious effort on your part will dramatically reduce the likelihood of unwanted medications polluting the lake, will lessen the likelihood that your children or grandchildren might accidentally poison themselves and will eliminate the opportunity for your unused drugs to fall into the wrong hands.

In closing, this medication disposal system is also available at all Connecticut State Police Barracks in the state as well as many local law enforcement agencies.

Please take the time to do the right thing.

Annual Lake Hayward golf tournament needs entries to reach minimum

We are only one week until the golf tournament and we have not heard from many of our regulars. We must give the course a firm count by July 25 (no exceptions). The course has agreed to give us the full 18 holes if we have 60 golfers but we are short of that number. PLEASE help your friendly volunteers make this a fun day for all.

A quick note: The after-golf picnic will be held on the golf course deck with picnic fare.

The lake has several great events in the afternoon including Second Beach potluck, boat parade, etc. We can golf, eat, award prizes and be back in time for more fun!

Please call right away if interested! Any number of golfers accommodated and partnered up! Thank you.
